

Day Trip From Bengaluru

MYSURU & SRIRANGAPATNA

Explore the lovely palaces of Mysuru during this private Bengaluru day trip. Visit the ancient city of Srirangapatna, recognized by locals for its religious and cultural significance, as well as Tipu Sultan's Dariya Daulat Palace en route to old-world Mysuru. Listen as your expert guide shares stories about Karnataka's heritage and history, and gain a deeper understanding of palace architecture and art.

SAME DAY TRIP

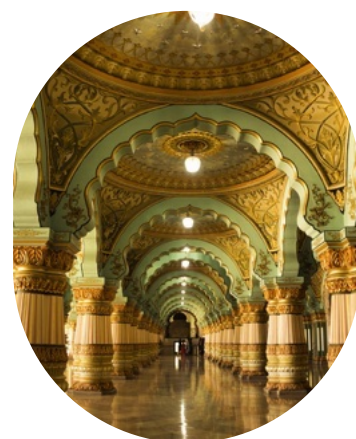

Bengaluru - Mysuru - Srirangapatna - Bengaluru

Early Morning; pick up from the hotel in Bengaluru and start the journey to Mysuru, known as the 'City of Palaces' (2.5 - 3 Hrs Drive from Bengaluru).

Start your tour at Mysore Palace (Amba Vilas Palace). This impressive museum showcases royal costumes and paintings that were previously owned by the Wodeyars-a family that once called this iconic residence home. Learn about royalty who ruled Mysuru for seven centuries from your local guide as you meander through the halls and galleries.

Wander the 3-story granite palace and marvel at its impressive pink marble domes and beautiful arches. Get an up-close look at the rosewood doorway inlaid with ivory that leads to the Ambavilasa hall. Marvel at the ornate mosaic floor and glass ceilings and check out the Indian ceremonial objects and European sculptures that are on display here.

After working up an appetite, enjoy a typical Indian lunch at a local restaurant before your next destination.

Next; visit the famed city of Srirangapatna. Located just outside of Mysuru, this former state capital is home to the incredible Dariya Daulat Palace. Stretch your legs and explore the well-kept gardens of Daria Daulat Bagh, which surround this much-loved summer palace.

Built in 1784, this beautiful and historically significant structure houses a museum dedicated to the sultan that's filled with Persian manuscripts, European paintings, and other rare artifacts. Your professional guide explains the architectural features of this impressive space, which include pillars made of teakwood, frescoes of battle scenes, and wide-open corridors that are perfect for exploring.

Relax and unwind on the return trip to your Bengaluru hotel (2.5 - 3 Hrs Drive to Bengaluru).
